

Kingsbury Bay

Grassy Point

1

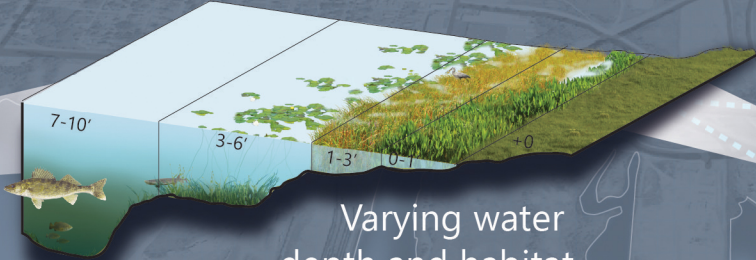

2

3

4

Varying water depth and habitat

Kingsbury Bay material was spread at Grassy Point to cover wood waste and foster healthy aquatic community growth

1

 Removed invasive species community and dredged nuisance sediment to deepen bay

2

 Mouth of Keene Creek dredged to remove wood waste and create wetland connections

3

  Invasive species communities and wood waste removed to create open water and island feature

4

   Existing island built up and extended to create a shallow sheltered bay setting